WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 19 1863

The News

Nothing of special interest will be found in this morning's dispatch There is no apparent reason to feel anxiety as to the position of our troops at Vicksburg, nor do the rebel chiefs seem disposed to interfere with Hooker's advance in Virginia It is possible that Lee has employed so much of his force in other directions that he is only seeking to make a show against Hooker, hoping in the meantime that the detachments sent elsewhere will accomplish something which will be more than equivalent for the sacrifice of the position south of Fredericksburg It is not likely however, that the raid attempted towards Maryland and Pennsylvania will amount to anything, and as to the sending of any part of his force to reinforce the besieged garrison at Vicksburg, so much suspected, we presume that was not proposed, for many reasons, and if it was, we have no doubt that it has been found impracticable on account of the immense distance, feeble means of transportation and the risk of dividing his force not now so immense as to be capable of being safely divided

The Ohio Democrats have made a deity of Vallandigham, and show their own baseness by bowing down before it If the idol is so degraded and shameless, what must the worshippers be? Perhaps Ohio can, in the absence of her brave troops, furnish voters enough to elect the King Copperhead as their Governor, though we greatly doubt it, but if they should, thousands of the loyal sons of the Buckeye State will be ready to blush in her behalf, and in shame and mortification, to go backward and cover her nakedness We trust that no such blot will ever stain her patriotic fame, but that with sublime and loyal devotion, her Union men will unite in such an earnest conflict against treason, as shall insure the vindication of the gallant Burnside, the condemnation of the avowed traitor, and his banishment to a deserved infamy, deep and everlasting

Custom House Affair —The Union reports that at the primary meetings in San Francisco, last Wednesday, the Custom House delegates, being of course in favor of Low, the Collector, for Governor, were elected It is now considered certain that he will be nominated in the Convention, unless the members from the rural districts, where Custom House influence is not felt, shall repudiate the official management which has been used It is greatly to be feared, however, that this attempt at dictation will greatly weaken the Union party and perhaps endanger its success Especially if the Democrats, as now seems likely, should fuse thoroughly and effectually —We hope, however, that the Federal officers will bear their honors gently, and not at once kill the goose that lays golden eggs for them.

Rebel Wrath —A Union soldier, writing from Suffolk, Va, to his home in Massachusetts, says

You ought to see the rebels here They are willing to endure anything to help their cause. All are alike, from the baby up to the gray headed man; they hate us with all the bitterness imaginable

Can we not profit by the example of our enemies, and emulate their earnestness and determination of purpose? So far as their hatred of us is concerned, the fact cannot be questioned; and we commend it to the attention of those men in the North who are so anxious for a humiliating peace, and who contend that from a cessation of hostilities a compromise would result

Good for the Soldiers —We are glad for the sake of the brave boys who have volunteered on this coast to be able to mention that the Army Paymaster at San Francisco received last week a letter from the Paymaster General of the United States, informing him that it has been decided to pay half the dues of the private soldiers on the Pacific coast in coin, the order to take effect immediately

Letter from John G Whittier.—At a Union meeting of citizens of all parties in Amesbury, Massachusetts, a letter was read from the poet Whittier, from which we extract the following passage

I regard it as of the utmost importance that, in this hour of trial, men of all parties should remember only that they are American citizens The life of the country is at stake and however we may continue to call ourselves, there are really but two parties—the party of loyal men and the party of traitors For myself, I can say in all sincerity that I am more than ready to lay aside whatever of merely party feeling and prejudice I may have entertained, and act cordially with any and all loyal men, who are willing to act with me At a time like this, we owe individual allegiance to our country We were American citizens before we were Republicans or Democrats—and it matters little who is in or out of office

People in the East were as excited on receiving reports of the capture of Richmond as they were on the Pacific coast and the same extravagant manifestations of joy are recorded in the Atlantic papers

The total sales of Government five-twenties, up to May 10, was nearly $7,000,000

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to June 12th.

Murfreesboro, June 11th.—The Chattanooga Rebel of the 4th, in an article on the situation of affairs states that Breckinridge's corps returned to Bragg, and Johnston is so sure in his position that he needed no more troops

Southern papers of the 8th and 9th contain nothing in regard to the reported surrender of Vicksburg

Pickets refuse to exchange late papers It is expected they contain news of rebel reverses The opinion is entertained in authoritative circles that not a man can be detached from Bragg's army Since Grant opened siege on Vicksburg Rosecrans has kept him so thoroughly informed of Bragg's designs, and so constantly threatened him an attack in force, that he (Bragg) deemed it imprudent to weaken his strength in the least effort for the relief of Vicksburg By pursuing this course for the present, Rosecrans is believed to be contributing more towards a triumphant result than he could do even by such a victory as that of Stone River

A dispatch from an officer engaged in the cavalry fight at Beverly Ford station, says, among the rebels killed was Gen Stewart himself. The report needs confirmation

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, June 11th —Our forces remain in position south of Fredericksburg The enemy is manifesting no intention to attack us Our defenses are impregnable. It is not believed the rebels will risk an assault Work is suspended on their fortifications, their troops, however, display themselves in large force. Nothing heard since Tuesday evening This morning the utmost quiet prevails A number of prisoners arrived last night from the upper works mostly members of the 4th Virginia cavalry Lee is in the vicinity of Culpepper with a large body of infantry A heavy force remains near Fredericksburg Troops from the Black Water North and South Carolina and elsewhere have been hurried to the army in Northern Virginia No doubt Lee contemplates a desperate effort for the annihilation of Hooker's army Stewart's attempt to make a raid into Pennsylvania is frustrated.

Levi Burchard of Washington City, has been appointed Surveyor General for Arizona

New York, June 12th —The steamer Albany arrived from Newbern, N C, with dates to the 9th. The concurrent testimony of deserters leaves no room to doubt that the long smouldering fires of Revolution are breaking out in the interior of that State, and that disaffection has reached a point far beyond what the journals of that State intimate.

Several thousand armed refugees from conscription, who have been weeks intrenched in the mountains, successfully defy the confederate authority The Raleigh Standard complains that while the rebel conscription act has not been enforced in Georgia and Mississippi, North Carolina has been raked as with a fine tooth comb It appears that the North Carolina troops were placed in front at the battle of Chancellorsville, to resist the advance of Hooker, sustaining an immense slaughter, while the Virginia and South Carolina troops were held in reserve. The massacre of the North Carolina troops is boldly and freely denounced, and the Confederacy charged with gross injustice and bad faith Numerous studied indignities are put upon the State which her people greatly resented It is proposed to make Gen Welch, of the African brigade, military Governor of North Carolina.

Columbus, Ohio, June 12th —The Democratic Convention held here yesterday, was the largest and most enthusiastic ever assembled in Ohio Ex Senator Hugh J Jewett made a speech denouncing the arrest of Vallandigham and Holt and their banishment He execrated Gen Burnside's order, Jewitt was nominated for Lieutenant Governor — Judge Van Trump was nominated for Supreme Judge A committee of 20 were appointed to wait on the President and demand Vallandigham's return Numerous speeches were made by S S Cox, Sam. Medary, Sherman and others, all bitterly denouncing Burnsides and his order The Convention passed off quietly and harmoniously, and adjourned, with the determination to elect Vallandigham Governor of Ohio by a triumphant majority The report of the committee on resolutions, declared that the democratic party has ever been and is yet a law abiding party, asking nothing but its rights under the Constitution and the laws. That the will of the people is the foundation of all free governments, to give effect to this will, free thought, free speech, and free press are absolutely indispensable — That there is a manifest difference between the administration of the government and the government itself That the administration, and the agents of the people are subject to their approval or condemnation, according to their merits or demerits. The resolutions further protest against the emancipation as burdensome to the people and unjust in its nature, wholly without warrant of the Constitution They declare the power assumed by the President to proclaim martial law over States where war does not exist, and to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, is unwarranted by the Constitution Its tendency is to make civil authority subservient to military, and that the arrest and imprisonment without trial and actual banishment of C L Vallandigham by alleged military authority, for no other pretended crime than uttering words of legitimate criticism upon the conduct of the administration in power, and of appeal to the ballot box for a change of policy —said imprisonment being when courts of law are open and unobstructed is a palpable violation of the Constitution of the United States The resolutions further declare whenever it is practicable, to obtain a convention of all or three fourths of the States, such a body should convene for the purpose of proposing such amendments to the federal constitution as experience has proven necessary

Ward Beecher on Gen Halleck —A late number of the New York Independent, H W Beecher's paper, thus treats of Gen. Halleck

Mr Lincoln understands plain men (says the editor) He selects wisely among men that have simple common sense It is only when affairs demand a man of more than industry and routine sense, that he is at fault He has no affinity for men of genius They seem to terrify him He likes to ride a safe, strong, dull horse, that will keep in the road But a blood courser, that knows how to leave circuitous roads, and make a straight path for himself across the fields over walls across ditches through thickets—such animals Mr Lincoln puts off to pasture as soon as possible! It is this fondness for plain men, we presume that has drawn Gen Halleck to Washington. He is wise in military history He knows what has been done rather than what should be done If old battles were to be fought over again, probably Halleck would be our best General It is his memory and not his invention that is strong Unfortunately for the use of his best gifts all our campaigns have required new ideas He is patient and industrious He pulls at the war with dull ox like strength As yet, he has shown nothing of genius His plans and combinations, so far developed, have excited no admiration for brilliancy nor even for efficiency Opinionated obstinate bitter in his prejudices he seems to be unable to use to the best advantage the men whom he might command But he is steady, strong plain He is just the man that the President understands and likes a man without fancy without novelty of idea, without dangerous impetuosity, a sober solid, reading, reflecting man, who could edit a Military Encyclopedia—if it took him a hundred years. Is it surprising after all the past that the people are not so certain of military success as they used to be? If for example should we meet reverses in the Army of the Potomac, or at Murfreesboro in what way could they be repaired? No recruits are raising The Government has done nothing towards conscription The very officers under the bill have not been appointed. It would not be possible to put new men into the field before autumn and then they would be raw conscripts

Is the Administration still a-dreaming under the insanity of hopefulness that has for two years afflicted the country? Does the Secretary of State diffuse in Washington that rosy atmosphere in which it is impossible to see anything as it is and only as it exists in that shadowless land of phantasy from which come golden dreams and hallucinations

Valuable Aid from the Contrabands—The Sunflower River expedition was greatly helped and perhaps saved from destruction by the intelligent services of the negro slaves in that region, who in every instance did everything they could to promote its success Admiral Porter's guide was a contraband He also carried dispatches through the rebel lines to Gen Sherman which enabled that officer to avert the capture of the fleet by the enemy —a disaster that was at one time imminent When the expedition first arrived in their midst, a scouting party came suddenly upon a house which belonged to the Sheriff of the county He ordered his old servant to get his horse as the Yankees were coming.—"Couldn't tink of it—wouldn't do it for a tousand dollars, I'se a Union man now massa" The horse was not got, but the Sheriff was The first knowledge that the enemy had come down Deer Creek in a steamer, was from a contraband It was confirmed by four others who were compelled to assist in pushing the flatboats and deserted in the night. In the business of felling trees to obstruct the gunboats the negroes were employed. A curious cunning taught them to fell many of the trees in the wrong direction—The chopping was done with great care and judgment, and saved our troops a vast deal of labor

Secretary Chase —Simonton writes from Washington as follows

Speculation in gold continues to the bitter cost of some of our operators, who anticipated a rapid rise in coin Such is the chagrin of these parties at their losses that they openly charge it upon the Government and say that Secretary Chase is keeping down the price of gold, at a cost to the public treasury of several hundred thousand dollars per day It is alleged that he throws upon the market every dollar in gold which comes into the treasury Mr Chase laughs at the absurdity of the charge, yet admits that he could, if he thought proper to do so, soon bring coin back to its old standard, by coming into market with the specie revenue of the Government Mr Chase came into the Treasury Department with many misgivings on the part of his friends as to his financial abilities, but the consummate success with which his efforts to sustain the currency have been crowned, has placed his name high on the roll of distinguished financiers The Hon Robert J. Walker, himself among the most successful chiefs of the Federal Treasury pronounces Mr Chase "the master of his position"

Exchanging —The wife of a volunteer in Bristol county, Massachusetts, whose husband is a prisoner, on being told that he would be exchanged, said "Well, I love Tom, and—the children love Tom, and I don't—want him exchanged I won't have a rebel husband, no how" She thought the exchange was a swap, and that she was to have another husband This volunteer's wife was more faithful than many of our leading Secessionists who have run off to Dixie and left their families to live under the "Lincoln tyranny," and to be protected by negro stealing hirelings

The Election in Washington Territory

Walla Walla, June 7th 1863

Press Oregonian:

You are well aware that Messrs Raynor Cole, Kinney and Turney are candidates for Delegate to Congress from Washington Territory

The election is an important one I desire to say something to the people of the Territory in regard to the political character of these men and the bearing which the election will have upon the welfare of the people of Washington Territory.

I believe the candidates are all of democratic antecedents. Since the South, by an uncalled for rebellion, has sought to break up the Government and the Union Mr Raynor occupies no equivocal position—he is for the Union without a condition

Mr Cole professes to be for the Union but here he is acting with many men who, on all occasions, have expressed their sympathies with the rebels and who time and again have declared their hopes and confidence in rebel success These men go with Mr Cole they act with Mr Cole; and will vote for him and make all possible efforts in his behalf If Mr Cole does not harmonize with them in feeling the saying that "men are known by the company they keep," may at last, be set down as false

Of Mr Turney it may be told that he is only running to advocate the interests of Cole. He knows that he has no hopes of success and his only motive is, by the election of Cole to have his revenge upon the Administration for removing him from an office he was incapable of filling

And further of Dr Kinney it may be said that he is a candidate merely as a bait to make the public believe that copperheads here are running him, when not a single man of them will vote for him

We have this to say, that there are really but two candidates before the people who have the slightest chance of being elected—Mr Raynor and Mr Cole Every man who votes for Turney, falls away his vote and Turney knows it is so.

Doubtless for the coming two years Congress, and the President and his advisers will be Union men, and will sustain the views and measures which now control the policy of the nation No man who goes to Congress by rebel votes from Washington Territory will have the least influence in that body He will play only the part of the late Representative Shiel of Oregon. He will show his hatred to the Government by his votes, and pocket his salary and mileage and return to his home

Washington Territory needs all the paternal kindness that can possibly be extended to her people under the present embarrassed condition of the nation What can she expect from Government if she sends to Congress a man to represent the copperheads—the Vallandighams—of Walla Walla county? Let honest Union men lay this matter to heart

There is to be a meeting here of what is called "the democracy" of this county, to further the election of Cole Look at some of the names upon the call for this meeting You will find among them men who have grown rich on the patronage of Government, and who are now cursing the hand which has fed them. They rejoice at the defeat of our arms and gnash their teeth in very rage when our national arms succeed in battle. Such are among the men who are pushing the election of George E. Cole

It is boasted here that Mr Cole will have the assistance of Judge Strong and Judge Lander, and Columbia Lancaster, in their power to embarrass it and indirectly aid our enemies They think they have a right to all the patronage of Government, to all the stealings they can accomplish, whether to be done at Walla Walla or Boise, and at the same time curse the Government with a bitterness that shows the venom in their hearts We repeat the question—What benefit will it be to Washington Territory to have these secesh send a man to Congress? Will he have the least influence there? Would he have the impudence to protrude his face before any Department asking for favors?

There is one trick of ineffable meanness now being used to defeat Mr Raynor in Walla Walla county. This is done with the consent and approbation of Geo E Cole He is as stated by Turney Kinney, and the whole secesh element here It is to raise the prejudice and hatred of the people here against those below the Cascades All the charges that can be rung against them are used; they are clam-eaters, fish eaters, gorillas, cheats, swindlers, cliques, and every other epithet used against them found in the vocabulary of the blackguard "Now," say the secesh here, "we have got the clam-eaters where we want them We will unite against them; Turney is working for us, Kinney is working for us the patronage given by Government is made to assist us, and we've got the clam-eaters! We will keep all the votes here from Raynor, and we will divide the votes below by using Strong Lander and Lancaster!"

We ask the Union men of Walla Walla county what they have to gain by throwing their votes against the Union and Government in the way, the secesh party of Walla Walla have marked out for them?

I make no sweeping charge against real lovers of the Union who rank themselves as democrats There are many of them, and I have confidence that when the trial comes they will be found on the side of the Union, and for crushing out this rebellion

We need a test vote in Walla Walla county The people and the Government want to know who are the unconditional friends of the Union They want the names down upon paper, there is no dodging in this matter We rejoice that there is not Copperheads who have been pampered by Government have given a notorious name to Walla Walla—injure us to her reputation—blighting her welfare—and her citizens have now an opportunity to vindicate their claims to patriotism We trust they will do it

CITY COUNCIL.—The Council last evening passed an ordinance for the improvement of streets, and regulating the letting of contracts for grading and planking the same.

A resolution was passed authorizing the City Assessor to swear property holders as to the amount of property.

A resolution requiring the City Collector to sell all real and personal property for delinquent taxes of last year and make return before the 1st of October, was passed.

The committee on fire and water and the City Surveyor reported on the condition of the cisterns contracted to be built by Mr. Walters, to be finished by the 1st of November and 1st of March, but which were left unfinished. Report adopted and referred to the City Attorney for advisement.

SANITARY CONTRIBUTIONS.—The Ladies Oregon Sanitary Aid Society acknowledge the following contributions: L. H. Wakefield, $20 00, L. S. Hovey, C. A. Bacon, $10 00 each. Mrs. Quivey, Mrs. Tappan, Mrs. H. Law, E. M. Burton, Jas. Thompson, L. Lewellyn, Walter Bros., R. A. Burton, and "cash," $5 00 each. C. W. Burrage (monthly), Rev. P. B. Chamberlain, $4 00 each. Mrs. T. M. Smith, S. H. Harwood, H. M. Barton, $2 50 each. "Cash" $1 50. Alice Chamberlain, Mrs. Burrage, and "cash" $1 each. Eddie Chamberlain, four members of the Society, and "cash" three times, 50 cents each. Amount, $109 00. Previously acknowledged, $1,246 50. Total receipts, $1,355 50.

Mrs. A. C. GIBBS,
Secretary.

June [illegible], 1863.

SEIZED FOR TAXES.—The City Collector, yesterday, seized the Oregon Steam Navigation Company's steamer Julia, and advertised her for sale, for the payment of $4000 taxes levied on the Company under the supplementary city assessment. She is to be sold on the 25th inst. The Company refused to pay this amount, because they have only been incorporated since October last, and that before that time they were incorporated in Washington Territory, and paid taxes there, and think they should only pay taxes from October to July. They also claim that the city can only levy taxes on property within the jurisdiction of the city, and they are willing to pay on all property within the limits of the city, but not on that without.

The Collector also seized and tied up the E. D. Baker for the sum of $225 taxes. The Transportation Company paid the amount under protest and the boat was released.

OBSTRUCTIONS.—The City Marshal requests us to say that he has given two days' notice to all persons having signs projecting over the sidewalks, and if the Ordinance regulating the same be not strictly complied with by ten o'clock this morning, all neglecting to remove said obstructions will be prosecuted, be they old or young, great or small, rich or poor.

LADIES' FAIR.—The Fair had by the ladies of the Episcopal Church at the Gymnasium, last night, passed off very pleasantly. The hall was thronged with people the entire evening. Quite a large sum was realized, we are informed.

HISTORICAL DRAMA.—Remember the thrilling historical drama, entitled "The Carpenter of Rouen," will be played to-night at the Theatre, for the first time in this city. Miss Mitchell and Mr. Waldron have not failed on any occasion to delight their audiences, and while they have Messrs. B. S. Mortimer, P. Thayer, E. Reeves, Mrs. Waldron and Miss Minnie Gillespie as supports, we are sure, every piece advertised by them will be truthfully and fairly represented. A full house should be present to-night.

Willamette Engine Company No. 1.—Drill at 7½ o'clock, June 18th. After drill there will be a Monthly Meeting. A. G. WALLING, Sec'y.

Multnomah Engine Company No. 2.—Special meeting this evening at 7½ o'clock precisely.

By order, BEN. L. NORDEN, Sec'y.

DR. D. JAYNE'S
EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold,) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates Immediately upon the Disease,

SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT, while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

UPPER UWCHLAND, Chester Co. Pa., Sept 15, 1858.

DR. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.

NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 13, 1860.

L. W. TINSLEY, Esq, New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known (but not enough known) "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.

I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.

I remain, my dear Tinsley, with esteem, your servant and friend,

J. B. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co., O., May 22, 1860.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.

J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co. Pa., July 22, 1863.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day.

JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr. Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true.

MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates, and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr. D. Jayne and Sons' Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC, which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

IN A PERFECT MANNER,

A greater range of work than any other machine.

The value of a Sewing Machine cannot be estimated by the amount of wood, iron, brass or steel used in its construction, but by the manner in which these materials are put together, and the quantity and quality of the work it turns out. You can buy a watch or a piano-forte for very little money; but if you want either for your own use, you wish an article which can be relied upon, and you will purchase accordingly.

They make a tight lock-stitch, alike on both sides of the work, which cannot be ravelled.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

ANOTHER PEACE DEMOCRAT REPENTING.—The Journal of Commerce—once a strenuous advocate of peace at any price—commenting on the failure on the Rappahannock, and on the effect which that event should have on the progress of the war, says that some persons seem driven to despair by this misfortune, and already begin to whisper about settling the matter and dividing the Union. Upon this point the Journal says:

We protest against all such suggestion. We call on conservative men in all parts of the land to raise their voices now against every proposal for peace and disunion. It is the time when lofty patriotism demands the greatest sacrifices; when the American heart must be roused to the noblest actions. We know that the future is dark with the leadership which we have, and must have; but we know the true, the only principle of action now is firm, unwavering support of the Constitution and the constitutional authorities; and if the people speak out in their might to-day, their voice will be heard, and the war will yet be made to result in the overthrow of the rebellion while the peaceful contents of the ballot box will result in the everlasting demolition of the radicalism which has plunged us into this new abyss of sorrow. Every energy must now be strengthened and exerted. What will you do if you think of disunion? Do you know what will become of Missouri; of brave, noble, faithful old Kentucky; of Maryland; of Washington itself? If you could do nothing more than stand on the defensive and hold your lines from the Atlantic to the Pacific against the hosts of our enemies for two years, until we can place a stronger Administration in power, you must do that. But you can do more than that. It is not a party war; it is not a radical war; it is not an Abolition war, strong as the efforts have been of the radical party to make it such. It is your country's war, and the peace to be won must be a Union peace. That and that alone must be the aim, the desire, the vow of every true man.

A HEART THAT CAN FEEL FOR ANOTHER.—"I give and bequeath to Mary, my wife, the sum of one hundred pounds a year," said an old farmer. "Is that written down, Measter?"

"Yes," replied the lawyer; "but she is not so old; she may marry again. Won't you make any changes in that case? Most people do."

"Do, do they?" said the farmer; "well, write again, and say, and if my wife marries again, I will give and bequeath to her the sum of two hundred pounds a year. That'll do, won't it Measter."

"Why, it's double the sum she would have if she remained unmarried," said the lawyer; "it is generally the other way—the legacy is lessened if the widow marries again."

"Ay," said the farmer, "but him as gets her'll deserve it."

A MODEL WOMAN.—"Did you not say, Ellen, that Mr. A. is poor?"

"Yes, he has only his profession."

"Will your uncle favor his suit?"

"No, and I can expect nothing from him."

"Then, Ellen, you will have to resign fashionable society."

"No matter; I shall see more of Fred."

"You must give up expensive dress."

"O, Fred admires simplicity."

"You cannot keep a carriage."

"But we can have delightful walks."

"You must live in a small house, and furnish it plainly."

"Yes, for elegant furniture would be out of place in a cottage."

"You will have to cover your floors with thin carpets."

"Then I shall hear his footsteps sooner."

FUNNY ORDER.—A recent order issued by General Rosecrans reads thus:

GENERAL: The General commanding directs me to call your attention to a flagrant outrage committed in your command, a person having been admitted inside your lines without a pass, and in violation of orders. The case is one which calls for your personal attention, and the General commanding directs that you deal with the offending party or parties according to law. The Medical Director reports that an Orderly Sergeant in Brigadier General ——'s division was to-day delivered of a baby, which is in violation of all military law and of the army regulations. No such case has been known since the days of Jupiter. You will apply the proper punishment in this case and a remedy to prevent a repetition of the act.

The Virginia Legislature is trying on taxation at an extreme rate. Secession is chargeable. Virginia might have renewed her greatness, had she remained loyal, but now she is becoming a Sahara. Of all the Confederate States she is the greatest sufferer, having ruined towns, ruined fields, ruined homes, and ruined prospects beyond anything that could have been predicted of an American community three years ago. The Old Dominion's dominion has passed utterly away, no matter what may be the event of the war. We are sorry for it, for we have always liked the first of States, and, in spite of all that has happened, we would gladly see her once more arrayed in all her former glory—were she loyal.

A paragraph has been going the rounds of an old lady who has a mustache on her lip. It is not uncommon for young ladies in this vicinity to have mustaches on their lips, but rare that they grow there.

There are pretended patriots who will hold anything except their tongues; keep anything except their word, and lose nothing patiently except their character.

We have in our office a splinter from the Board of Education, and a spool full of the thread of life.

Bad news for the girls—The manufacture of 'busses is taxed by the new law.

Independence in thought and action is a luxury far beyond the reach of poor folks.

THE CONFIDENCE OF THE PEOPLE.—The New York Evening Post of May 8th says:

The confidence of the people in the final triumph of our cause and the maintenance of the Government in all its majesty and force is no mere figment of the imagination, which a breath can dissipate or a blow break in pieces. Checks and reverses may depress, but they cannot destroy it; they oftener, indeed, strengthen and ennoble. A fine illustration of this is found in the temper of the people under the news of yesterday, which here and elsewhere was firm and determined, as though no shadow had darkened our hopes. Everywhere the Government bonds stood firm, and in many places the sales were as large as on any previous day. In Philadelphia the subscription agent announces an aggregate sale of $709,000 of five-twenties, almost wholly by local subscription. These subscriptions, be it remembered, were made directly in the face of the intelligence from Hooker's army. Who can doubt that the patriotism of the masses will yet, properly directed, bring the nation safely through its trials?

NASHVILLE UNION CLUB.—The Nashville Union, of May 10th, says of this Club:

The meetings of the Club are largely attended, and are distinguished for their enthusiasm and good fellowship. The growth of the Club has been greatly increased since the adoption of the celebrated anti-slavery Declaration. Previous to that time the applications for membership averaged about twenty-two per week for four weeks; since that time the applications have numbered forty per week, and the Secretary informed us yesterday that there are sixty applications now on hand. Slaveholders, who have never been suspected of harboring a thought adverse to the "divine institution," have come forward and avowed their firm conviction that the system was an unmitigated curse, and incompatible with our Government. The Secretary informs us that he has not been notified of the withdrawal of any member since the declaration was published, nor has he heard of one member who has abandoned the Club on account of this enunciation of free principles.

Truly, this is an age of progress.

AN ARMY ON THE MARCH.—This spectacle I have seen. It is a novel one, and suggestive. What say you to droves of armed men, of a brigade or division, in a procession two or three miles long? Following them are regiments of cavalry and batteries of artillery; and, were the line kept unbroken, it would thus be lengthened a mile or so more. Then comes on a train of ambulances and wagons, numbering as high as 400, most of them drawn by four or six mules or horses. This will add two or three miles more, and you have a procession five or eight in length.—Such a one passed a point on the road where I was staying. It was over four hours passing, with but little stoppage, and the mules and horses certainly walked 2½ miles per hour. If the road is dry, the cloud of dust thus kicked up is really prodigious. I have seen dust in Illinois—breathed it in the streets and suburbs of Chicago—but I never before wallowed in dust and ate it down in great gulphs, until getting mixed in with these army trains. This description of a procession refers only to one division or brigade, say 10,000 men, with their teams, etc. Imagine eight or ten such processions, and you see this great army in motion.—Army Correspondence.

Major T. T. Viemont, of the 7th Kentucky cavalry, an officer of distinguished gallantry, says in a letter to a friend, a portion of which is published by the Paris (Ky.) Citizen:

As sure as you live, we are bound to be a united people, on a better and sounder basis than ever. You may say it to the stay-at-home fault-finders to dry up about the nigger and Old Abe. We are not Abolitionists, and are opposed to many of the President's acts, but this Government must stand, and while we give them steel in the front, do you all do your duty at the ballot-box, and all will be well.

It is high time the people of Kentucky would cease praying good God—good devil.—They cannot serve two masters, and they had as well make up their minds, first as last, to abide by the dear old flag, with every star and stripe inscribed upon it.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were, chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore, thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.
J. NEWTON BROWN.
PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result of it is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF ARMY.

We call the attention of all having relatives or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.
Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
